

General ARRA Resource Pages

American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (H.R. 1), final version http://frwebgate.access.gpo.gov/cgi-bin/getdoc.cgi?dbname=111_cong_bills&docid=f%3Ah1enr.pdf

California's ARRA Website: <http://www.recovery.ca.gov>

League of California Cities Guide: <http://www.cacities.org/federalstimulus>

County of San Diego Stimulus Page: <http://www.recoverysdcounty.org>

City of San Diego Stimulus Tracker: <http://www.sandiego.gov/stimulus/>

San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce: <http://www.sdchamber-members.org/EconomicStimulus.htm>

Grants.gov: <http://grants.gov>

Go here to register your organization to qualify for federal grants and contracts AND to search for specific grant applications. Note some agencies are not using grants.gov so check both places.

Nonprofit Specific Resource Pages

National Overview of Programs for Nonprofits
<http://www.givinginstitute.org/pdfs/SpecialBulletin2009FINAL.pdf>

National Council of Nonprofits
Special Reports on Economic Stimulus & Recovery
<http://www.councilofnonprofits.org/stimulus>

Should You Really Apply for Economic Recovery Grants?
<http://dongriesmannsnonprofitblog.blogspot.com/2009/02/should-you-really-apply.html>

If you are considering applying for one or more grants under the Federal economic Recovery Act, this article offers Nonprofit Internal Action Steps to help you decide - yes, no or keep studying and thinking about it - and the clock is ticking.

Just for fun?

Pro Publica, a nonprofit investigative journalism site is tracking the use of stimulus funds: <http://www.propublica.org/ion/stimulus/>